Me, the PJ an(b)(6),(b) rolled him onto the ladder. I was at his feet. He was not secured on the ladder. His head was at the top of the ladder in the direction of travel. I am sure he may have been slipping and bouncing around on the ladder, but his head was not hanging below the rungs. He never came off the ladder. Four of us carried him on the ladder. While we were carrying him, we went about 100 meters and then we put him down and switched positions carrying the ladder. I went from the right rear to the left rear. The terrain was roll there were no big obstacles. I do not remember anybody cutting the detainees ship (b)(6),(b)(7)
