_____, WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH:

I arrived at Baghdad Central Correctional Facility on the 21st of October 2003. The document flow on detainees worked as follows. The interrogators would print out all documents referring to a detainee and would place the documents inside the detainee dossier. The detainee dossier would then be given to OPS, Collection Management & Dissemination (CM&D). CM&D would check for outstanding requirements and then send the file to the Detainee Assessment Board (DAB). The DAB would review the file for missing documents, conduct a briefing with the detainee, and make an assessment whether or not the detainee could be sent to the review board. At any time the file could be returned to the Interrogation Control Element (ICE) if the detainee was deemed to have further knowledge. If the DAB approved the detainee dossier, it was then given to the Magistrate Cell. The Magistrate Cell would review and pass the detainee dossier to the Release Board. The Release Board would then approve or deny the release. I believe that a denied detainee dossier would be given back to the Magistrate. It is possible that the Interrogation Plans were purged along with working documents, but some may still exist on the database. The database we were using was nicknamed the _____ as it was compiled and maintained by _____ 97E from 205th MI BN. Some detainee dossiers and files concerning interrogations were placed on the database, to include Interrogation Notes and Information Intelligence Reports. The database was supposed to be backed-up daily. There was a list of required documents to be included in the detainee dossiers. At different times at the prison interrogation notes were required or not required as part of the DAB packet. Every Interrogation Plan was to be signed and approved by _____ or me. I know that _____ would not have approved any interrogation plan that involved humiliating the source by stripping them, and neither would I. _____ took control of a special section after the capture of HUSSEIN, Saddam. I was not allowed to review any of the interrogation plans for that section. _____ and a Warrant Officer arrived to Baghdad Central Correctional Facility from Guantanamo Bay, CUBA to help _____ what was working for them at GITMO. Before an interrogation the detainee could be stripped and searched for weapons, this was to be done by the military police. If they refused the interrogator had the option of doing it. Military Police had control of the hardsite during my time at Baghdad Central Correctional Facility. They had the keys to the site and had to let us in. I remember the International Committee Red Cross visiting but I was not briefed on them. _____ I went down to the hard site about once a month to show new interrogators the facility. I never saw a detainee naked. I never approved the use of dogs in interrogations. I told the interrogators that military police were not to be used as part of the interrogation approach. I do not remember talking to _____ concerning _____ or interrogation abilities and report writing skills.
