9. [REDACTED] WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH:
I arrived at Abu Ghraib (AG) on 24 or 25 October 2003. In processing consisted of orientation of the facility and training on the IROE and Geneva Convention, presented by [REDACTED]. I had to sign a statement that I had received training on them. We also received training on a monthly basis on the IROE's. These monthly sessions were presented by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] told us that any request for measures listed on the IROE would have to be routed to her and passed up the line for approval. I was initially assigned to the Detainee Assessment Board for two days and then assigned to work with two different interrogation teams until after Saddam was captured on 14 December. One team included [REDACTED] and a military analyst whose name I do not recall. I usually worked in the interrogation sites, but on one occasion, I did go out with [REDACTED] on the operation which took down Saddam. After Saddam's capture I was moved to the Special Operations Team, working with [REDACTED]. I went into Block 1A on occasion to pick up or return a detainee. Sometimes we conducted interrogations in the shower area or stairwell of 1A; we also used the "wood site" and the "metal site". I did not see or hear about any instance of abuse or humiliation of detainees. I did not see or hear about the use of dogs for interrogation purposes. I did hear dogs barking as they were being used by the MPs to search cells the night of the shooting, but did not actually see them in use. I did not see or hear about detainees being stripped and kept naked in cells, nor did I see or hear about detainees having to wear women's underwear. I had heard about sleep management where in a detainee would only be allowed an hour or so sleep in a 24 hour period. I do not recall sleep management being used on any interrogation team to which I was assigned. I do not recall any instance of a detainee being thrown to the ground from a vehicle and/or dragged on the ground. I do not have any knowledge of OGA personnel doing any unauthorized interrogations. I was reassigned from AG on Feb 8th 2004. Q: Is there anything you wish to add? A: No. [REDACTED]
