I want to make the following statement under oath:

As far as some of the things we talked about yesterday. The people I suggest you look at is [REDACTED] these two gentlemen, I have looked at their files. I sat next to an interrogation that [REDACTED] was doing one day, where he was breaking a tables and chairs in the room with the detainee. [REDACTED] has a reputation for breaking the tables in the room. Look into file 155215 [REDACTED] He is my detainee now. One of the first times I interviewed him at the beginning of Jan 04, he showed me a large bruise to his left forearm that was about six to eight inches long, and he stated he got it from being grabbed and being thrown around. He had a bump on his forehead over his left eye that he related he received that from being thrown into a wall. He said that the interrogator grabbed him and threw him down. He is evasive and deceptive, but when he is talking about how people have treated him, I tend to believe it based on the stuff that I have heard and seen. Evidently the people who talking to him before I was working him were very hard on him. [REDACTED] was the person working him before [REDACTED] I think his number is 155800. I would look at the interrogation on 12 Jan 04, of this detainee, and talk to the interpreter of that helped interview him. He should be able to give you more information. I am working his brother at the time. His story is very forth coming and very cooperative. Talk to [REDACTED] was working another detainee who is the brother of my detainee; this person related to [REDACTED] detainee, I think the number is 155794, as well about this incident. Pull up the fill on this detainee [REDACTED] After the first interview, [REDACTED] says to put this guy in isolation because he is not being forthright in his information. [REDACTED] is a young interrogator, he is very excited and motivated, and he believes everyone here should be broken. [REDACTED] and interpreter he might have info. [REDACTED] has seen a lot of stuff that goes on. [REDACTED] is an interpreter with Titan as well. He has stated that he has witnessed some of the interrogators being ruff. I do not know if it was abuse. There is another incident [REDACTED] was involved in where one of her detainees, she wanted to degrade him; she stripped him naked and made him walk back. She was moved into Bn Ops, and taken out of the interrogation role. [REDACTED] would know more about that. I would really look at the files for the detainees of [REDACTED] was the detainee that was allegedly taken and thrown out of the vehicle handcuffed. I believe the incident was witness by [REDACTED] He is on leave in the states and is getting married. You would have to go through Titan to get his info. [REDACTED] was sitting in the vehicle sandbagged, the interrogator who I think might have been [REDACTED] grabbed him and threw him out of the vehicle to the ground, the interrogator then yells at him for falling on the ground, and then started dragging or pulling the detainee by the cuffs. This information came from [REDACTED] We were doing an interview and he provided this information out side of what he was interpreting.

Q Do you have anything to add to this statement?
