9. [REDACTED] WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH:
I arrived at Abu Ghraib on 29 September 2003 to work as an analyst and was asked to be an interrogator due my background. I served in a dual capacity as an analyst/interrogator. I departed Abu Ghraib in mid-November 2003 to work at the 1st Armored Division DIF and returned to Abu Ghraib on December the 16th 2003. When I first arrived to Abu Ghraib [REDACTED] gave us a briefing on Interrogation Rules of Engagement (IROE) and I signed the IROEs. I was explained the process and duties assigned to an analyst. I did not receive any Geneva Convention training as it pertained to detainees at that time. I received it a week after I arrived when a Fort Huachuca team came to train the Tiger Teams. I did not witness or know about any detainee abuse, any photos taken or the use of dogs. I was never aware of any MI personnel telling MPs to "soften up" a detainee or give them "the treatment." There was always a question as to who ran things at the site. I know that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] ran the Interrogations Control Element. I had no knowledge of a base commander [REDACTED] played a role though I am not sure what it was. I believe he was kind of in a supporting role. Q. Do you have anything to add to this statement? A. No ////////////////////////////////////End of Statement//////////////////////////////////// 8/10
