B. _____, WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH:

I arrived at Abu Ghraib in mid October 2003. I am a 96H and when I arrived at Abu Ghraib I was assigned as an Assistant Interrogation Analyst to work with Interrogators. My focus was Extreme Fighters. The first day we received a tour of the site. We were shown interrogation booths, where CAMP Vigilant and CAMP Ganci were. We were also given some classes on how an Analyst worked with interrogators. The interrogators I worked with were [REDACTED]. Every interrogator had his way of using an analyst. Some allowed you to ask questions which were relevant to the interrogation plan. Other interrogators did not allow you to ask questions they just wanted you to take notes and do the research. We also received some general information on the Geneva Convention but no classes on it. We received the Interrogation Rules of Engagements (IROEs) and I signed a couple of iterations of the IROEs. I was not taught what was acceptable or not acceptable. But the section leader [REDACTED] discussed it with us. I understood that I was not to touch a detainee. I remember one time when I was dropping off a detainee after an interrogation. I went upstairs to TIER 1 to drop off the detainee to the MPs while [REDACTED] stayed below to do something else. I handed the detainee to the MP and they asked me if how come the detainee was in shackles. I told them that the detainee had been untruthful. The MP (I do not recall who they were just that he was a male, not an NCO and had a brown T-shirt) took the detainee and jerked him toward the wall. The detainee hit the railing. When the MPs took the bag off, I noticed the detainee had blood on his head. I was not aware what the MPs were allowed to do. I told [REDACTED] and I believe [REDACTED] as well and maybe even [REDACTED]. They reported it to either [REDACTED]. I do not know what they did. This occurred sometime in November after we took over escorting of detainees. On another time I saw the MPs making two detainees do PT. These two detainees had raped a boy. The MPs could make them do MP but we were not allowed. No one ever suggested that it was okay for MPs to abuse detainees but we knew they could use the necessary force hen detainees got out of control. I never saw or had any knowledge videos of detainees or dogs being used for interrogations. I did see [REDACTED] (who always had a camera) take photos of detainee once. She took a photo of a detainee who was standing next to [REDACTED]. This is the only time I knew of anyone taking photos of detainees. The MPs had cameras and computers in the Hard Site. I knew photos were not allowed in the interrogation area but I did not know of the Isolation Area. [REDACTED] NCOs were there and they saw her so I just assumed they allowed to since the NCOs didn't say anything. I knew there were detainees delivered by Other Government Agencies (OGA) but I never dealt with them. [REDACTED] (Tall civilian with black Goatee) dealt with them a lot. OGA never shared any intelligence they obtained from the detainees even when they belonged to us. There was a time when two female OGAs went in to the cell with weapons. I didn't notice the weapons until after they had walked out. I notified [REDACTED] and stated it was wrong. Do not know what happened after that. We had a shortage of clothing for detainees. We did not have enough blankets, jumpsuits, shoes, or other items. I saw a naked detainee who was thrown in the black room (the Hole). The detainee was a troublemaker and had gotten violent with a female MP. I was told that the MPs policy when placing a detainee in the Hole was to put him in the cell naked. I never heard or was aware of any MI personnel tell MPs to "soften-up" or give "the treatment" to detainees. One stressed position I witnessed only once was when we had a detainee handcuffed to the floor but we only did it for a short period and kept watch on him. We would check his fingers and hands to ensure he had good blood circulation. This was in following with the interrogation plan. When I first arrived, there were rumors of prostitution and alcohol but [REDACTED] stopped that. Two of our soldiers were caught with alcohol and they received Article 15s and lost rank [REDACTED].

I didn't really know [REDACTED] but his analyst was [REDACTED].
Q Do you have anything else to add to this statement?
