MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: Telephonic Interview [REDACTED]

1. (FOUO) On 3 June 2004, the undersigned conducted a telephonic interview with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was assigned to Abu Ghraib as the Signal Officer for the 320th MP BN. He acknowledged that [REDACTED] worked in the 320th and confirmed [REDACTED] statement that he maintained a copy of e-mail correspondence within the 320th. [REDACTED] kept this on a CD-ROM, secured in a safe, at his Reserve Unit Headquarters in Fort Dix, NJ. [REDACTED] did not recall anything in the e-mail traffic concerning abuses of detainees or specific allegations/incidents. He opined there were some e-mails pertaining to the challenges/difficulties during the transition period between the Military Police units at Abu Ghraib. [REDACTED] is scheduled for "drill" at his unit on 6 and 7 June 2004. He offered to review the e-mails and telephone if he discovers any correspondence related to detainee abuse or allegations of abuse. Otherwise he will copy the CD and FEDEX or Priority Mail the CD NLT 8 June 2004.

2. (U) POC is the undersigned.
