9. [REDACTED] WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH:

From late May 03 to early Nov Oct 03, I was deployed to Abu Ghraib (AG), as an MP Guard for the 72nd MP Company. I worked on the night shift. I observed two incidents of concern. On one occasion, I was outside 1A when a fellow MP, I believe [REDACTED], yelled to me and told me to come observe a naked detainee for the purpose of humiliation. I refused to view the naked detainee. The detainee was outside his cell naked with his hands restrained behind his back by two individuals. It did not appear to be part of an interrogation. I believe it was an MP procedure because the detainee had been uncooperative. The MP Sergeant was speaking with an Other Government Agency (OGA) member who I could not see. I believe the OGA was giving the MP advice on how to humiliate the detainee by having me observe him naked. The other incident involved an unscheduled nighttime interrogation in 1B. I was on shift when the unauthorized interrogation of two Iraqi females by three MI soldiers and an interrogator occurred and reported the incident to higher headquarters. I was later interviewed by [REDACTED] and Criminal Investigation Command (CID) personnel. Most problems in the facility involved detainee on detainee physical or sexual assaults. Clothing removal and making them wear burlap bags over their heads were acceptable MP methods to control or modify behavior when isolation or pressure through the detainee leadership didn't work. No other humiliation or physical abuse was authorized. I observed more detainees without clothing in 1A than any other place in the camp. I did not witness any abuse or maltreatment of detainees while at AG. I never saw or heard of any photography of the detainees. I was never asked nor heard of any other MP being asked by MI to abuse or humiliate detainees. MP's do not utilize humiliation as a form of control.
