From there we were suppose to go pick up a suspect in the bombing of a humvee. We left Germantown at 1400 to pick up the suspect in AH Rutbah. We were told by Captain [REDACTED] that the suspect is going to be told that we need him to weld together a leaking water tank for us. We drive into Germantown to the welding shop at Germantown to pick up the suspect but he was not there. We told the other workers that we would come back in 30 minutes to pick him up. We drove half a mile down the road towards Germantown pulled over and told the man he was under arrest. We tied his hands together with zip ties. Captain [REDACTED] came forth and told the man, "we are taking you to the desert." Next, we turned around and started heading towards FOB Buzz. On Route 10 we were about 10 to 15 miles out of AH Rutbah and we then turned off and down a dirt road. We stopped in the middle of nowhere, pulled the man out of the humvee untied him and handed him a shovel. Captain [REDACTED] told him to start digging his grave. While he was digging his grave he told me to hold my weapon on him. While I was doing that SSG [REDACTED] fired one round out of his M-4 away from the man digging. After that the interpreter came to me and told me to fire one round out of m-4 over the suspects head. I asked him again what he just said, and this time he said "Captain [REDACTED] told me to fire one round over his head." So I did. When I did that the interpreter
