What follows are several release lists that I have developed over the past two days. Due to the size of this message, I am having it typed by a paralegal so it will read of awkwardly; I'm trying to make sure both you and I understand my lists.

List 1

All of these prisoners are alleged to have committed minor offenses and from who no file exists to support their continued detention. For the reasons laid out in my earlier message, I am authorizing their release as I believe it is compelled by a right sense of justice.

[REDACTED]

List 2

Similar to the above group, no file exists to support the continued detention of these prisoners. Everyone on this list however is currently on an MI Hold and can not be released until this is resolved at your level.

[REDACTED]

List 3

These are prisoners charged with major crimes but whose release has been previously ordered by some earlier review. I do not believe that this result was ever provided to you before as these prisoners are still listed as being in custody at Camp Bucca.

I have not heard back yet from COL [redacted] — b6-2
(I hope you got my NIPR message this morning), but there are 168 names on these lists to start to work on. If I get the green light for my plan, I am hopeful of getting similar numbers out tonight and tomorrow.

Best Regards

All,
Good evening everybody. I spent the day winding down my activities as I will be leaving Baghdad on Friday to return to Kuwait and then start some leave. I do not yet know whether I will be returning upon my return from CONUS, so I have to presume I may not. As a result of this planning, there were not many releases today. I know you will understand, and I hope CPT [REDACTED], who will be continuing on here, will be able to build upon what I have started here. Here are the releases for today. \b62

MAJ [REDACTED] asked me to look into releasing the son of the deceased prisoner. I did look at the file, but we can NOT release him at this time. He and his father had been taken into custody for attacking US soldiers. Until a full and complete investigation is done by CID and MI into these allegations, he must stay where he is.

Respectfully

MAJ [REDACTED]

This morning when I was reviewing my work from last night I realized I had made two errors in the list I had sent out. In both instances, the prisoner's name is correct, however his sequence number is off. The correct sequence numbers to be released are [REDACTED] (not [REDACTED] as listed) and [REDACTED] (not [REDACTED] as listed). The first was just a typographical error; the second resulted from misreading the lines across a page. Prisoner [REDACTED] appears to be someone we really want to keep, so please do not release him.

Also those lists you sent to me have a few sequence numbers that no one here recognizes. They are [REDACTED]

Have a great day, and good luck moving out as many of those prisoners as you can.

All,

Good evening to everybody. Here are tonight's lists.

*NOTE: This prisoner is the subject of an MI HOLD which must be resolved before he can be released.

Before anyone gets upset about the limited numbers of releases, what follows is a list of 84 names of prisoners at Camp Bucca who are being authorized for release. All have been in Coalition custody for at least one month (and in many cases nearly two months). Based upon the transfer manifest that was received at Camp Bucca when they arrived there, all were apparently charged with de minimis, non-violent criminal violations. None of them had an apprehension file that could be located after scouring the Magistrate's Cell office for two days. None had files in the Pending Court Action file cabinet, the Crimes Against Coalition file cabinet, nor the Security Detainee file cabinet. None are listed as MI Holds nor CID Holds. In light of the fact that their continued detention can no longer be justified and giving the prisoners credit for the time they have already served, I have determined that justice requires their release at this time. If we are ever going to be successful in the overarching goals of Operation Iraqi Freedom, we must demonstrate by our actions that we are prepared to do the right thing even when it may not immediately benefit our interests.

For non-HVDs we haven't had them yet, but were starting based on the latest FRAGO. There will be review by a JAG at the facility. I've asked COL [REDACTED] to give me 4 more judge advocates, plus I have volunteers from Arifjan. The appeal is to a 3 person panel consisting of myself, an MP officer from the 3 shop, anan officer from our 2 shop.
Please send further questions to my address on the cc line here in Baghdad.

LTC [REDACTED] and/or [REDACTED]

Hope this finds you well. CJTF-7 is looking at the Magistrate Review procedures and Internment Order issues. Several questions have arisen:

1. For the Non-HVDs, who is issuing the Internment Orders for the civilian/security internees IAW with AR 190-8?
2. Where are the orders being maintained: at the prisons, ie, IF/Bucca or CHA or Abu Ghuraib/?
3. Do you have a copy of the Internment Order form or letter that you can email to us?

thanks
