4. REMARKS (Continued)

[redacted] clarified comments documented in a prior interview by stating at the [redacted] training camp, there were no Arab or foreign trainers or students. He stated everyone at the Camp were [redacted]. The instructor [redacted] was also [redacted] said when the bombing started everyone fled into the mountains. He stated they found shelter in caves and stayed there until they ran out of food. [redacted] stated his group decided to go to Pakistan, but they did not know how to get there. [redacted] said while sitting in the cave he noticed a group of walk by and he went out and asked one of the where they were going. An Arab male told them he was going to Pakistan and [redacted] asked if his group could follow them. The Arab said they could, and he initially after leaving the cave he saw approximately 15-20 Arabs, but it became 70-80 Arabs. He stated none of the Arabs were carrying weapons and he did not ask them where they were coming from. [redacted] stated the trip took two days and they arrived at the end of Ramadan in Pakistan, in a village where the "Kaby" (sp) tribe lived. He said the village was celebrating the end of Ramadan and welcomed them and gave them food and tea. [redacted] stated they stayed in the village for approximately 15 days and in the middle of the night the villagers woke them up and stated it was not safe and they drove them [redacted] off to another area. He stated this is where the Pakistani Police came and arrested the [redacted] and the [redacted] Arabs. [redacted] stated that his group was never a part of the Arab group, he explained they followed them to Pakistan and everyone stayed in the village and ate. He stated the Villagers probably believed the two groups were actually one. [redacted] was asked where he would have gone if he had not been captured. He stated he would have went anywhere where he could be safe and live free. [redacted] stated he has never fought or engaged the US Forces and stated he never had any intention of fighting for the Taliban. [redacted] stated his sole purpose was to receive training to prepare himself for the time where [redacted] would fight [redacted] was asked why [redacted] had been declared a terrorist group [redacted] and the rest of the world.
