On 1/30/2003, [REDACTED] Internment Serial Number (ISN) [REDACTED], was interviewed at Camp Delta, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, by Federal Bureau of Investigations Special Agent [REDACTED] and United States Army Criminal Investigation Command Special Agent [REDACTED]. The interview was conducted in French and translated by Department of Defense linguist [REDACTED]. After being informed of the identity of the interviewing agents, [REDACTED] provided the following information: b(7)(C)-2 b(7)(C)-1
[REDACTED] was asked if he heard anything about a possible uprising. He advised that he did not hear anything and did not have any concrete information that something was going to happen. He also noted that many of the brothers were still unhappy about the detainee who had attempted suicide a couple of weeks earlier. He stated that there were two stories going around the camp. One story was that the detainee had attempted to commit suicide, and the other story was that the guards had beaten the detainee to death. It was then explained to [REDACTED] that the detainee had attempted suicide and was still in the hospital. [REDACTED] further advised that it would be difficult for a mass uprising to occur; however, he agreed to notify interviewers with any pertinent information. b(7)(C)-5
[REDACTED] advised he studied Islam for six months prior to his departure for Afghanistan. He was not interested in Islam while in Morocco. He only learned of Islam when it was discussed in some of his courses at school. At the age of 19, [REDACTED] traveled to Germany to study science, biology and to work. b(7)(C)-5
Shortly after his arrival to Frankfurt, Germany, [REDACTED] began to visit the Bangladesh Mosque. He passed the mosque on his way to work and would stop in to pray two or three times a week. While at the mosque, he met a Tunisian named [REDACTED]. They were only acquaintances who would say hello to each other and occasionally speak. [REDACTED] was a [REDACTED] b(7)(C)-5
[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] dressed in normal attire and did not carry a lot of money. They never met outside of the mosque. b(7)(C)-5 b(7)(C)-5
[REDACTED] advised he visited the mosque only to pray. He heard a couple of lectures presented by a group called Tabalegh, which was comprised of people from Pakistan, Bangladesh and several other Arab countries. It was a very well known and respected group in Germany. The lectures were predominately Islam and prayer oriented emphasizing perfecting themselves as good Muslims. He never witnessed or heard of any anti-American sentiments while at the mosque. b(7)(C)-5
[REDACTED] wanted to live in a Muslim country and study Islam. [REDACTED] mentioned that Afghanistan was a true Muslim country and would be a good place for [REDACTED] to begin his journey. In March 2000, [REDACTED] decided to take [REDACTED]s advice and visit Afghanistan. [REDACTED] advised at the time of his departure, he knew about the Taliban and that there was not any fighting where he was going. He had heard of some fighting in the north but wanted nothing to do with it. He was excited about his decision to become a good Muslim. b(7)(C)-5 b(7)(C)-5
