[redacted] also claimed his duties at [redacted]'s camp included guarding two prisoners arrested by [redacted] for allegedly stealing a vehicle. [redacted] village elected [redacted] to act as a leader for matters concerning crime and the proper punishment. [redacted] stated the two prisoners were eventually released.

[redacted] believed [redacted]'s opinion of the Americans was favorable and he was happy the Americans had displaced the Taliban and Al Qaeda. Under the American's presence, [redacted] was allowed to travel freely. [redacted] believed someone lied to the Americans concerning [redacted] and [redacted] having anti-American beliefs. In fact, [redacted] claimed he was helping the American Coalition forces and was even provided an ID-card, which he wore around his neck signifying his positive relationship with the American forces. (NFI) [redacted] stated a MOG Officer (NFI) gave him the ID-card.

At one point during the interview, [redacted] claimed that there was no missile attack against the Americans and he was arrested only because he owned a rifle. However, he later changed his story, claiming that [redacted] and [redacted] did in fact fire missiles against the American forces and he had no involvement. He claimed that he lied during earlier interviews regarding his involvement in a missile attack because he was scared and was being tortured forcing him to confess to the attack. He said that was all a lie and he had not been involved and was innocent. Later, [redacted] changed his story once again stating that [redacted] and [redacted] were not fighting the Americans but were in fact fighting against the people from the village of Gardaiz, AF. They were fighting the people from Gardaiz, AF because they had attempted to stop [redacted]'s vehicles and also stole one of their vehicles. [redacted] claimed that in Sep 02, the above four individuals fired five missiles toward a group of individuals in the Gardaiz village. [redacted] believed [redacted] purchased two of the rockets from Baloo, PK. (NFI) [redacted] claimed he was not present when the rockets were fired and had never even seen a rocket fired.

[redacted] was showed photographs from a FBI lead, dated 10 Feb 03, and a photograph from an U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Division (CID) lead dated Oct 02. [redacted] stated he did not recognize any of the individuals depicted in the photographs.

The interview was terminated at this point.

Agents Notes: [redacted] was obviously not being truthful during the interview and attempted to avoid the questions by discussing alternate matters.
