When questioned regarding his status in the cellblocks, he responded that he has been in Tango block for approximately one week; prior to that he was in Sierra block. He is at behavior level 4 and the reason for this is because he fought with guards when there was a recent revolt in the block. The revolt occurred because the guards hit one of the brothers. The detainees threw water and toothpaste at the guards. [REDACTED] is now allowed only a blanket and mattress in his cell.
