^{b(2)-5} ID: [REDACTED] ^{b(2)-5} Title: FM40 [REDACTED] ^{b(7)(C)5} [REDACTED]

Narrative: ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED], aka ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED], Internment Serial Number (ISN) [REDACTED], was interviewed at Camp Delta, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, on July 29, 2003. Present during the interview were Special Agent (SA) ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED], Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), and SA ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED], FBI. The interview was conducted in English. ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED] provided the following information:

^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED] was shown photographs of several individuals. The photographs are numbered 1 through 6 and are enclosed in the 1 (a) notes. ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED] did not recognize the following:

- ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED]
- ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED]
- ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED]
- ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED]
- ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED]
- ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED]

^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED] does not know anyone that goes by the name ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED]. He knows of only one person, ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED], who traveled to the United States. ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED] met ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED] at the ^{b(7)(A)} [REDACTED] in Afghanistan. ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED] studied at a university in ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED]. ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED] was later told by other ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED] interrogators that ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED] studied electrical engineering, but ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED] did not know this before that. ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED] and ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED] lived together for approximately two (2) months in Afghanistan. After the 9/11 attacks, ^{b(7)(C)-3} [REDACTED] told ^{b(7)(C)-5} [REDACTED] that he had visited the World Trade Center in New York.

^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] does not know why ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] visited New York or why he went to the World Trade Center. He does not know of any other places in the U.S. that ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] visited. ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] seemed happy after the 9/11 attacks and told ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] that "forbidden things" go on inside the World Trade Center. ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] never told ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] what he wanted to do after training. He never discussed with ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] his desires regarding jihad. ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] had also traveled to London. ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] knew this because ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] was familiar with roads in London. He thinks ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] may have studied in London.

AGENT'S NOTE: ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] and ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] were previously determined to be the same person.

^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] converted to Islam at the age of 19. He was training at ^{b(7)(A)} [redacted] camp at the age of 21. ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] main reason for leaving the UK was due to his involvement in an aggravated assault. He chose Afghanistan to get away from the temptations so he could better focus on becoming a better Muslim.

^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] has heard of the ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] in London, however, has never attended the mosque. ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] attended the ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] and the ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] in London. He has heard of ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] but has never seen him or listened to his speeches. ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] was warned to stay away from ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] by others who attended the ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted]. They told ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] that ^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] understanding was not good.

^{b(7)(C)-5} [redacted] reiterated his story regarding his travel to Afghanistan. He traveled with his friend ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] and ^{b(7)(C)-3} [redacted] wife. Everything was "hooked up" as if it was organized. A person was there to pick them up from the airport. [redacted] would telephone [redacted] in England who would provide him with information about where to stay and who to meet. [redacted] was the person who organized their trip and raised money for them. [redacted] gave them 3000 pounds for the three (3) of them. They used a lot of the money for the plane tickets and spent a lot in Pakistan buying clothes, nice food, and perfumes. [redacted] was in charge of keeping up with the money during their travel.

Once in Afghanistan, [redacted] stayed in a house for approximately one week before going to [redacted]. The training was very difficult and [redacted] almost quit during the first week. The instructors were tough and people would be punished if they were caught goofing off. After 9/11 the trainees were told that the Americans would probably bomb the camp. [redacted] opined the Americans would bomb [redacted] because they thought the people responsible for the attacks were at [redacted]. [redacted] does not know if any of the hijackers were trained there but thought they may have been.

Before 9/11, Usama bin Laden (UBL) came to the camp on several occasions. [redacted] was not excited about seeing him but said others there were worshipping him and kissing his hand. [redacted] did not hear the speech but someone told him that during one of UBL's speeches he mentioned that there would be an attack. He did not give details. Since [redacted] did not speak Arabic, he could not understand what UBL was saying during his speeches. His interpreter, [redacted], would give him a synopsis of the speech after it was over. The speeches were usually about jihad. [redacted] met UBL on one occasion. They talked briefly through the interpreter. [redacted] asked UBL why he came to Afghanistan and UBL told him because it was the land of jihad.

Sometime after UBL visited the camp, an instructor named [REDACTED] (NFI) called for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] asked them if they would and/or could travel back to London. This was during the fifth week of training. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] they had no interest in going back to London and told him about their problems with the police there. [REDACTED] said they were never approached again and [REDACTED] did not tell them the reason he wanted them to go to London. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] seemed disappointed.

After the 9/11 attacks, the trainees and instructors went into the mountains. They stayed there for a while until they got the order to leave. They all left in a big van and went to Kandahar briefly and then to a valley in Khowst. They remained in hiding and "on the run" for about two and a half months before they were able to cross into Pakistan. [REDACTED] was trying to make arrangements to return to England, but had trouble retrieving his passport. Once he got it, he gave the passport to [REDACTED] who was supposed to make the arrangements for him. While in the valley, [REDACTED] met [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who both had London accents. [REDACTED] nationality was Sudanese and [REDACTED] was Jamaican. They told him they trained in Pakistan. [REDACTED] had contacts in Karachi. Once they arrived in Karachi, [REDACTED] telephoned [REDACTED] (NFI) who gave him instructions about where to stay in Karachi. [REDACTED] never met [REDACTED]. He does not know his nationality.

[REDACTED] was asked about [REDACTED] who he mentioned in a previous interview. [REDACTED] advised he was the second in command of a group in the valley in Khowst. It was a group of Arabs. [REDACTED] said he could not describe [REDACTED] because it was so long ago. He believes he was from Canada because of his name. [REDACTED] said he did not look like an Arab.

AGENT'S NOTE: Once the interview was completed, [REDACTED] b(7)(C)-5 asked the interrogators about sexual assaults he heard about occurring in the camp. [REDACTED] b(7)(C)-5 explained he heard that female interrogators were sexually assaulting the detainees. [REDACTED] b(7)(C)-5 further stated that while he was imprisoned in Bagram, he was raped by a female CIA agent. He said that during an interrogation he was told that if he did not tell the truth, then "things" would be done to him. He was questioned about UBL and swearing a bayat (oath) to him. [REDACTED] b(7)(C)-5 said he denied that he swore an oath to UBL. He did admit to his training at [REDACTED] b(7)(A). The following day, he was taken to medical and handcuffed to the bed with a hood over his head. A female came into the room and started to rub her chest on him. She removed his pants and fondled his private with her hand until he was erect. She then raped him. He was told "the next time it will be a man." After this he told the interrogators that he made the oath to UBL. He also started to complain of being tortured in Bagram. It should be noted that [REDACTED] b(7)(C)-5 has been questioned numerous times since arriving at Guantanamo Bay and this is the first time he has mentioned this alleged sexual assault. It is possible that this is an effort on [REDACTED] part to retract his earlier statements regarding his oath to UBL. b(7)(C)-5
