[REDACTED] is employed as a salesman, selling wall clocks and belts. [REDACTED] has traveled throughout Pakistan for the past 4-5 years selling these items and returns to his home in AF to see his family every 4-5 months. Approximately 10 days prior to the IED explosion, [REDACTED] had returned from Pakistan to see his family. [REDACTED] claimed he had traveled by vehicle (NFI) to Safied Sang in order to buy feed for his cattle (two cows and one calf). When he arrived in Safied Sang he started asking people where he can purchase hay. No one had hay and everyone informed him to continue down the road toward Zaid Abad Village. While walking toward the village, [REDACTED] related he was a white Mosque (NFI) with a water well in front of it. [REDACTED] stated he took a drink from the well and went inside the Mosque to rest. While in the Mosque, [REDACTED] related he went to sleep and awoke some time later. [REDACTED] claimed after he woke up he continued toward the village in search of hay. While walking down the road [REDACTED] heard and saw a loud explosion, and thought a bomb was dropped from an airplane. [REDACTED] stated people starting coming out of their homes and asking if he was responsible for the explosion, which he denied. As [REDACTED] started walking away from the area, a local villager (NFI) subsequently accused him of setting off the explosion and detained him. [REDACTED] was held over night by this individual and was turned over to what he says were American Forces the following day. b(7)(C)5 b(7)(C)5 b(7)(C)-5 b(7)(C)5 b(7)(C)5 b(7)(C)-3
[REDACTED] stated he was brought to Kabul where he was interrogated for 6-7 days and during the interrogations he was beat and shocked. [REDACTED] was told by one of the interrogators that if he confessed he would be brought to the Pakistani border and released. [REDACTED] claimed he then related he was responsible for the explosion. After providing a confession, [REDACTED] was brought to the Bagram Collection Point. b(7)(C)5 b(7)(C)5
Since his arrival at the BCP, [REDACTED] has maintained his innocence and related he only confessed after being beat and promised he would be released. [REDACTED] further related Americans (described as having a beard and sunglasses) were present during two of the interrogations.
