Sir,

For tomorrow's ops update there are only one issue that your Ops Section would like to bring to your attention.

[redacted]

(b)(5)-1

Since these are both my issues, I will be the only one that will be briefing. From my discussion with the branch chiefs, we will have several issue to bring to your attention at the Ops Update next week.

At this morning's Tiger team meeting the following information/taskings were discussed:

Schlesinger panel report that is due on 31 July, that now may be a interim report and the panel may stay standing until after the election.

PFC England will go before the Courts Marshal on 22 June

An interim report has been provided to Bagram facility and some changes have been implemented. No other info was provided, but, since I have 2 folks at that facility right now I have asked them to get some more details if possible.

(b)(5)-1

The leadership is still looking for the comparison between corrections and detainee punishments. Will provide an EXSUM for your review prior to COB today.

The pictures at the crime lab and the dating of those pictures continues to be an issue. Leadership would like closure by tomorrow COB.

Gen Kerns will be the new appointing authority for the procedure 15. No 3 star has been named to the team yet. MG Fay will remain on the team.
All for now Sir.
