<sup>4</sup> Examples of physical torture include, inter alia, forcing an individual to stand, sit or kneel in abnormal positions for prolonged periods of time, food deprivation, or any form of beating. Examples of mental torture include abnormal sleep deprivation. Coercion is defined as "... actions designed to unlawfully induce another to compel an act against one's will, to include: threatening or implying physical or mental torture to subject, family, or others; intentionally denying medical assistance or care; threatening or implying that rights guaranteed by the Geneva Conventions will not be provided. Such acts are punishable under the Uniform Code of Military Justice.
