I WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH:

My name is [REDACTED] am a screener here at Abu Ghraib since December 2003. I made a statement about two weeks ago to [REDACTED] references to a palace and [REDACTED] screened both brothers [REDACTED] and both sisters [REDACTED] sisters arrived on January 4th, and the brother on January 2nd. When initially screened the brothers, they were [REDACTED] feared to death and they thought we were going to beat them. One said he was raped with a bottle by [REDACTED] and they [REDACTED] mentioned another brother that was supposedly beat to death.

In my opinion, [REDACTED] was in emotionally and physically abused. [REDACTED] said, I don't remember in exact words, "they have taken everything from me."

I don't remember their capturing unit; all I know was that they came from the palace. I asked them if Americans were present and that's when the American flag tattoo on the arm came up, and someone said they saw black men there.

[REDACTED] the aid station, but [REDACTED] and we didn't because we were getting hit by mortars. I don't know if they got a facial examination. I don't remember anything about their wrists. When I screen detainees and view their packets I can generally tell who their capturing unit was.

[REDACTED] They stopped all the [REDACTED] of them, but that just sticks out. [REDACTED] see that they were factually abused. Not all of them, just [REDACTED] eyes, beaten, physical abuse. [REDACTED] I saw detainees with bruises, black eyes, blood in the [REDACTED] We don't want it said that it happened here.

It's to the point now when we MI Hold someone they all say they've been tortured, it's ridiculous. Since the Abu Ghraib thing broke out detainees are saying it, more than looking it. They know they'll get money from Americans, and they know Abu Ghraib. Over the course of my time here I have seen maybe ten detainees come in here physically abused, downright beaten and tortured, and I've easily screened hundreds of detainees. The only trend associated with that abuse would be with SF detainees. [REDACTED] comes up a lot among detainees and abuse. One of the first questions I'd ask was "why were you detained" and if they would mention [REDACTED] it was usually associated with extortion, and "he beat me". These were the two trends right there.
