Subject: Notice of Geneva Convention Status and Appellate Rights

1. Geneva Convention Status. This is to notify you of your status and the basis for your current detention. Your status is a Security Internee under the Geneva Convention Relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, 12 August 1949 (GC). The general basis of your detention is has participated in attacks on the coalition forces - a threat to the security of the coalition forces

Your internment is necessary for imperative reasons of security of the Coalition Forces.

2. Appellate Rights. You have the right to appeal your internment under Article 78, GC. If you wish to appeal, submit a written statement of your appeal to the Camp Commander of your internment facility within ten (10) calendar days. Your appeal will then be considered by a Review and Appeal Board designated under Article 78, GC, which is reprinted below.

Pursuant to Article 78, Geneva Convention Relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons, if the Occupying Power considers it necessary, for imperative reasons of security, to take safety measures concerning protected persons, it may, at the most, subject them to assigned residence or to internment.

Decisions regarding such assigned residence or internment shall be made according to a regular procedure to be prescribed by the Occupying Power in accordance with the provisions of present Convention. This procedure shall include the right of appeal for the parties concerned. Appeals shall be decided with the least possible delay. In the event of the decision being upheld, it shall be subject to periodical review, if possible every six months, by a competent body set up by said Power.

Protected persons made subject to assigned residence and thus required to leave their homes shall enjoy the full benefit of Article 39 of the present Convention.
