I, [redacted], WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH:
My full name is [redacted] and my MOS is 97E, interrogator. I am assigned to 312th MI BN, and I am the DIF night shift NCOIC. I got here on the 5th of March and before we did the transfer I was helping out at 2nd Brigade. I'm not sure if 3rd ESB has a

[redacted]

[redacted] which I believe, is a division policy, and [redacted] can interrogate. Since I've been here I've interrogated four or five people. Detainees usually get dropped off during the day. I have personally witnessed numerous problems with people dropped off by [redacted]. Their paperwork is cryptic, is as much as it rarely put the detainee's name in it, instead referring to him as the target, which confuses things, and they want to do the interrogations, and things of that nature. It's bad news all around. Basically with the [redacted], for instance, one time they took people to 2nd Brigade. There were two [redacted] members, one detainee, and two Iraqis, who were supposedly sources. Report they were IPs, but when we asked for identification they were not provided. The [redacted] soldiers insisted that the two Iraqis participate in the interrogation with the 2nd Brigade interrogator who was SGT [redacted]. SGT [redacted] was the only American in the room with these two sources. SGT [redacted] stepped out of the room for a minute, and less than ten seconds after she stepped out, I heard shouting and screaming coming from inside the room. This [redacted] ran in there and kicked out the two Iraqis. He asked for I.D., and he said that they provided two cards that said something like 'veterans of Saddam's prison' cards. They didn't show any proper identification. This [redacted] demanded to know who the [redacted] guys were, they didn't tell him. This is why I have a very poor view of the [redacted]. I haven't seen any indication that detainees coming in had been explicitly beaten. We had a detainee, [redacted] he was dropped off to the [redacted] by an IP station. The sworn statement by the [redacted] guys was that he had bruises all over his face, one eye was swollen shut. They were very careful in documenting that they got him that way. According to sworn statements the IP claim he was resisting arrest. I don't have any indication that [redacted] had anything to do with it. [redacted] is the one that comes here on a regular basis. I believe [redacted] is too impatient with their interrogations, I know that things are time sensitive, but you can't throw the rules out the window, just to make it go faster, and I think they do that. Like detainee [redacted] I think they weren't getting anything out of him, so he went to the IPs. I think they turn them over to the IPs to get the information faster. That way they keep their hands clean. With [redacted] I can only go off his story that he was dropped off at Adamiya prison, which I believe is run by the Iraqis.

I didn't get a good look at the two Iraqis. I believe one had black hair with some grey. He was about 5'8, and he had a gut on him, about 200 pounds. One other reason I don't like the [redacted] is SGT [redacted] told Christ [redacted] that on one occasion they shut down 2nd Brigade's interrogation operations for three days so [redacted] and the interrogators had to stay at home, which is counter to our policy, I know it's our policy here; I know it should be the same policy at the brigades, that if a noninterrogator is present during the interrogation, an Army interrogator or civilian contracted interrogator must supervise them. I don't know if the [redacted] brought their own interrogators, or what, but that just rubbed me raw that the brigade had to shut down their facility for three days so that one SF team could do what they wanted.
