[redacted] When asked what [redacted] he himself understood [redacted] stated that even though he can conduct basic conversations in [redacted] he is unable to read it. When asked why he spends so much time with [redacted] Koran in his cell, [redacted] responded that he essentially is just looking at the words but is unable to comprehend them. [redacted] said he was not familiar himself with the content of the Koran other than what he had been told by others. Additionally, [redacted] did not know the Koran has been published in [redacted] English and several other languages. When asked if he would like to receive a copy of the Koran in [redacted] [redacted] became excited at the possibility.
