thought about what interviewing agents had discussed in the last interview [redacted] indicated that there was nothing he could do as his fate was entirely in the hands of the Americans [redacted] was told this was not entirely true and that he may influence his fate depending on the choices he made regarding cooperating or not. [redacted] was told that if he resigns himself to a situation of helplessness he is no different than a wounded animal that just lays down and dies [redacted] was told that he has the powerful tool of knowledge that he could choose to share this knowledge.
