Before reaching Mazar E Sharif

[REDACTED] b6 -3,4
[REDACTED] They were taken to the Qalal Jhangi prison. They b7C -3,4 arrived at the prison [REDACTED] and were put in the basement of b7D -1 one of the buildings. The basement was very crowded and guards b7F -1 used rifle butts to force prisoners in the room [REDACTED] [REDACTED] there was a grenade explosion in the basement. Smoke was still coming up the stairway and [REDACTED] saw a dead Uzbek being carried out [REDACTED] was also one of the prisoners put in the basement

The next day, prisoners in the basement were taken outside with their hands tied behind their backs. Once in the courtyard, the prisoners were put in lines on their knees.

[REDACTED] b6 -3,4
There were two American looking males in the courtyard talking to b7C -3,4 prisoners. [REDACTED] described one of these males as having a fair b7D -1 complexion, wearing jeans and carrying a pistol on his right b7F -1 side. The other American looking male had a small automatic weapon slung over his shoulder. The male wearing jeans spoke [REDACTED] well and was talking to some of the prisoners

[REDACTED] b6 -3,4
While in the courtyard, there was an explosion which b7C -3,4 [REDACTED] believes was from a grenade. The American male wearing b7D -1 jeans then ran away from the lines of prisoners. One of the b7F -1 prisoners ran after him. The American turned and fired his pistol shooting the prisoner in the head. The guards above began firing into the courtyard. The American ran in the direction of the building where [REDACTED] had been held in the basement. [REDACTED] saw several prisoners run after the American and ramming him with their bodies [REDACTED] was shot [REDACTED] and did not see what happened to the American [REDACTED] slowly crawled back to the building where he had been held. It took a while because his hands were tied behind his back and he had gunshot wounds in both legs. As he crawled towards the building, he saw who he thought was the American lying on the ground. He was lying next to an Uzbek and both men were dead. The two men looked like they died fighting each other because their bodies were entangled.

[redacted] returned to the basement and stayed there for the next five to seven days. During that time, grenades were thrown in the basement, gasoline was poured in the basement and set on fire and water was pumped into the basement. [redacted] was in water up to his shoulders for 24 hours before coming out of the basement. There were trucks with a white cross that took the injured to a hospital for treatment.
