b6 -2 ok -- disregard my later email asking for a time frame I have a feeling Mr (I thought he was a Lt or b7C -2 something) [REDACTED] isn't going to be happy with that sort of time frame

I just talked to Mr [REDACTED] from NCIS, I now have the corrected dates and the request has been further narrowed NCIS has a broken chain of custody on the two detainees as they passed from location to location and they are looking for 4 two month blocks to fill in the blanks The Military Liason & Detainee Unit is already pulling all the documents regarding the first detainee and will begin on the second in the near future because both are going to have hearings in Gitmo and the documents are needed for discovery They expect to have all the documents catalogued and in hard copy on the first detainee in the next month or so (Their estimate is that they have thousands of pages which refer to the first detainee [REDACTED] I am going to start by checking the list of documents generated by Records Management to determine what we have and whether any of it refers to the dates that NCIS has requested or the information they have requested (allegations of abuse) Mr [REDACTED] now has my pager number and telephone number in VA and should be calling me directly I will keep everyone updated on my progress
