Valerie,

Although I was in Iraq in January for a couple of weeks, I have not been an OSC. However, when I toured Abu G, DOD did discuss the FBI signing an MOU that outlined the limits to interrogation procedures. To my knowledge, we never signed the agreement. I will see what I can gather relating to this issue for you.

Chris,

I am hoping as an OSC for awhile in Iraq you can shed some light on this. According to the papers, there were rules promulgated for the treatment of detainees in Iraq by DoD on October 12, 2003. In my collecting of all stuff the Director needs to know about this, I haven't seen that. Are you aware of such rules? Do we have a way to get them from DoD if they exist or confirm that the paper is wrong?

After conversing with [redacted] (Assistant to the DD), I was able to obtain the OSC's for the early part of our mission in Iraq. Most of us were just arriving here at FBIHQ's when the Iraq mission was just getting a good start.

[redacted] was the first OSC (90 days), he was relieved by ASAC Mike Folmar of the Memphis Division (45 day tenure), although ASAC Tom Powers of Boston came over to provide assistance to Mike during the transition of one OSC to another. Powers only stayed for two weeks prior to departing for the States. The operation during [redacted]'s tenure was based out of Kuwait, and eventually moved to Doha, then to Baghdad. [redacted] never ran the operation from Baghdad. After Folmar, SAC Tom Fuentes was OSC, followed by DAD Chris Swecker, then former SAC Ed Worthington. Fuentes, Swecker and Worthington served between 60 -90 days. The present OSC is ASAC Ed Lueckenhoff. We are currently advertising for the next OSC to begin service July/August, 04.

Valere / Tom We've received about a 50% response so far regarding the GTMO personnel. We think many are on vacation. In the meantime, we've identified a few people whose responses require follow up interview. I've attached a draft of the question format we're proposing to utilize when we begin the interview process. Take a look and let me know if you have any concerns or areas of inquiry you think are not covered but should be.
