Narrative:
04/06/2002
On 04/06/2002, [REDACTED] detained at Guantanamo Bay (GTMO) Naval Base, Cuba, was re-interviewed by Special Agent [REDACTED] and Special Agent [REDACTED].
[REDACTED] After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents, [REDACTED] provided the following information:
[REDACTED] was questioned regarding information about going on in Camp X-Ray as far as what he has heard the detainees talking about. He advised that the military guards had a demonstration on how the detainees will be moved to the new prison and the prisoners are worried. He also noted that there are some problems in the camp regarding their personal hygiene.
[REDACTED] stated that the detainees are tired of being moved so many times to include Bagram, Qandahar and Camp X-Ray. He also advised that the Military Police (MP's), named [REDACTED] have been mistreating the detainees by pushing them around and throwing their waste bucket to them in the cell, sometimes with waste still in the bucket and kicking the Koran. He also noted that in the Muslim culture, people do not get dressed, shower or use the bathroom in front of others; however, they are being forced to do so.
[REDACTED] stated that the multiple moves, the mistreatment and hygiene issues may force some of the detainees to cause problems during the move. He advised the interviewers to warn the guards that they should take extra precautions during the move because some of the detainees are feeling that they have nothing to lose and are waiting for a time to cry out. The move might be that time. He is aware that other detainees feel that they would rather die than live the way they are living and he has heard an unknown detainee say "Death before I live like this". He noted that he has no specific information about any one particular detainee who may cause a problem but this was his personal feeling. He also stated that having demonstrations on how they are to be moved gives the detainees time to think of a way to possibly cause problems.
[REDACTED] explained that some of the detainees are Mujahideen and they feel that when it is time to die it is their time to die and they will not care about taking someone else around them with them when they die.
[REDACTED] advised that the detainees who have been talking and the detainees who have not been talking are all being treated the same; therefore, there is no incentive to talk or cooperate.
In other Camp X-Ray news, [REDACTED] stated that detainees in Camp X-Ray have heard that the Americans are still fighting in Afghanistan.
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] He noted the following:
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] believes that he may be at Camp X-Ray.
