Investigations; Special Agent [REDACTED] of the Federal Bureau of Investigations

[REDACTED] Civilian linguist [REDACTED] of the 170th Language Support Cell provided [REDACTED] translation. After being advised of the purpose of the interview [REDACTED] voluntarily provided the following information:

After he was captured, he spent two or three months at the Kandahar airport. He was treated harshly by U.S. soldiers at Peshawar and Kandahar. He was beaten on the head, chest, back, hands and feet. He could hear people screaming and shouting but could not see them because his face was covered. He was put facedown on the ground. He does not remember any names of the other men who were with him at the Kandahar airport nor does he know anyone at Camp Delta who was there with him.

He could not reference any verses from the Qur'an regarding the killing of innocent women and children although he claimed to have been a teacher of the Qur'an before being captured. He is offended by the killing of innocent women and children.

He believes suicide is unlawful and forbidden in Islam. These are acts of extremists. The Qur'an does not specifically address suicide but refers to it in general.
