statements were lies. [redacted] stated now that the Department of Justice is interviewing him, he wants to tell the truth and said he had been lying during previous interviews.

[redacted] was asked if he would submit to a polygraph examination. [redacted] has heard of but is unfamiliar with the polygraph test. Linguist [redacted] provided [redacted] with a thorough explanation of the polygraph test and how it is conducted. [redacted] questioned the types of questions that would be asked and believes he could be tricked and be evaluated as deceptive. Initially, [redacted] agreed to take the polygraph examination, however, eventually claimed that taking the test would be against his religion. [redacted] attempted to place conditions on when and where the test would be administered. Subsequently, [redacted] was advised that he is in no position to place conditions on the test and passing the polygraph test is the only way to prove credibility. [redacted] was given a few days to think it over. The interview was terminated.
