On October 22, 2002,

[redacted] was interviewed at Camp Delta, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Present for the interview was SA [redacted] CITF (NCIS), SA [redacted] FBI, and [redacted] Linguistic Cell, JTF GTMO 170, who interpreted [redacted]

[redacted] began the interview by saying he was under stress because he had not heard from his family and did not know how they were doing. [redacted] said that a guard at Camp Delta, several weeks before, told him he had mail, but that it could not be given to him until after it was translated. [redacted] said that he was still waiting for the letter, and was bothered because it had not yet been delivered to him. After Special Agent [redacted] told him that we would check on the location and status of the questioned letter, [redacted] decided to participate in the interview. [redacted] began by saying that with the passage of so much time, he has forgotten much of what he told his previous interviewers, although all the information should be in his file.
