Narrative: 302 20030501
[redacted] was interviewed at Camp Delta, U.S. Naval Base Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. The interview was conducted by Special Agent (SA) [redacted] Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), and SA [redacted] Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). The interview was conducted in the English language. [redacted] provided the following information:
[redacted] indicated that he was feeling well, but had some general complaints regarding his treatment at Camp Delta. His complaints ranged from general statements such as, "this is a war against Islam, and we are being persecuted because we are Muslims", to more specific complaints of physical abuse and sexual abuse. When asked if he observed any of these abuse allegations occurring he stated that he did not but, that he had heard from other detainees that they were "true". When questioned regarding which detainees made these allegations, he was unable to provide a name or a detainees cell location.
[redacted] viewed a series of photographs [redacted] viewed a transitional photo that included a face on the left hand side of the picture with a complex of buildings on the right hand side of the picture. [redacted] He stated that he was approximately 80% sure that it was that location. [redacted]
[redacted] recognized a photo that depicted a bearded man with a turban. The man's face fills the frame of the photograph. He recognized this man from a prison in Bagram and advised the man was [redacted] He was not able to provide any additional details regarding the individual. [redacted] also recognized the photograph of [redacted] as someone that he was in prison with in Afghanistan.
[redacted] At this point the interview was terminated.
