NON-RECORD

Gentlemen-

The good news: [redacted] was the only individual Army CID had asked to interview, regarding the allegations of abuse in Iraq, by [redacted] I accompanied [redacted] to Ft Belvoir yesterday, and it was pretty painless, as I'm sure he'll attest.

The bad news: [redacted] dimed you all out as other possible witnesses, so now they need to speak with you as well! Actually, it was coming; they just didn't have their act together, yet.

Anyway, as the interview is both voluntary on your part and easy as I indicated, in addition to the fact that I am leaving town, I am placing the onus on each of you to contact SA [redacted] Army CID, [redacted] to advise whether you are willing to speak with him and schedule a mutually convenient time. [redacted] can give you the scoop, very informal, but I would advise taking the time to review any paper you may have done to refresh your recollection.

Finally, once you've completed your interview, it will be typed as a statement to which you'll swear. Please obtain a copy of the signed statement once you're satisfied with it and have sworn/signed it. Send a copy to my attention.

Once again, this is entirely voluntary, however Army needs a response one way or another; as this is very high priority to them. So, please take the time to call Agent [redacted] At his request, because he must report daily as to his investigative steps taken, I'm forwarding your office numbers to him, so that he can track you down if he hasn't heard from you.

Thanks for everybody's attention to this matter. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact me.
