Date & Time	Fact Text	Source(s)
Thu 11/17/2005	Valerie E. Caproni called [redacted] to amend a statement she had made during her interview. During her interview, [redacted] had asked her what, in her opinion, should have happened when the reports from Behavioral Analysis Unit started to come in to HQ, should A, B, C, or D happened (the examples were along the lines of, report the situation immediately to the Director, document all communications with military, follow up more aggressively to find out exactly what is going on, etc - see interview write up for exact description). During the interview, Valerie E. Caproni replied: "all of the above." During the phone conversation, she said that this reply might have been unfairly relying on hindsight, and her real answer now is, "at least one of the above."	Valerie Caproni Interview 3
