[redacted] - If you want to go forward with this, a pony EC is attached. Or just send me a narrative, and I'll put it in an EC. [redacted]

I am sorry to be a pain about this but I need a definite answer on this issue. "I don't think so" and "Its not a clear issue" does not answer the question posed. Please find out if who this should be reported to and make the appropriate notifications or tell me who I should make the notification to.
Thanks,

I don't think so. It's not a clear issue, but I don't think you need to be concerned with reporting.
