Re: ACLU v. Department of Defense, et al., No. 1:08-CV-01003-RJL

Dear Mr. Jaffer:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request submitted to the Department of Justice and other government entities on April 22, 2008. The Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General (OIG) created a summary of the interview conducted by the OIG of Moazzem Begg in connection with our report, "A Review of the FBI's Involvement in and Observations of Detainee Interrogations in Guantanamo Bay, Afghanistan, and Iraq (October 2009, Revised)." The summary was created using OIG entries to the CaseMap database. Enclosed is the CaseMap summary of the OIG's interview of Begg. Also enclosed is a digital recording of the interview.

Both with respect to the summary and the digital recording, redactions have been made by the defendants pursuant to FOIA exemptions 5 U.S.C. §§ 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C). For these redactions, the text of the summary and the portions of the recording have been omitted. The bases for the redactions are shown on the summary, in the margin of the document or on the redaction itself.

Although I understand that your request is the subject of litigation, I am required by statute and regulation to inform you that you have the right to file an administrative appeal.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'W. M. Blier', with a stylized flourish at the end.

William M. Blier
General Counsel
