CONFIDENTIAL

Steve, Dona and I met with ICRC's Jean Philippe Lavoyer and Catherine Deman from the legal division to follow-up on Friday's discussion with Kellenberger [redacted] It was envisioned as a short meeting to define issues that both sides seek further clarification on but ended up being a more lengthy discussion. On Kellenberger's visit - Lavoyer said it was too early to come forward with information. I will check with other sources to get the thinking on a possible visit by the President.

Lavoyer will also be visiting Washington on/around March 11-13 for the American Society of International Law Conference. He would be pleased to meet with DOS/DOD officials for further discussion of these issues. He will be in NY beforehand for a course that ICRC participates in on IHL for diplomats.

Areas for clarification: It was decided that the following areas should be put on the table for further discussion: Details on each of these areas will be provided next week.
